

1 pair of sneakers

2 workout outfits

1 bathingsuit

1 Planet Hollywood shirt

along with countless amounts of makeup and hair supplies and even a bottle of perfume!

Being able to bring all of those items home was definitely a bonus of the trip. Not to mention the best part of all, I now have friends all over Canada. Even though the girls of the pageant are all over Canada, we share the same passionate memories of our week together. The Miss Teen Canada pageant gave me the chance to live a dream and gain the experience of a lifetime. To any of the girls who were in the pageant who read this, I miss you all so much and I hope you all have the best futures imaginable. To everyone who criticizes pageants I know that is your personal opinion, and I completely respect that; however pageants have changed my life and given me so much to believe in. I truly encourage girls out there to give them a try, because they truly are more fun then you could ever imagine. If I could change anything about my week in Toronto, I would make it last longer. Reach for your goals and you will achieve. Anything is possible, and I am the living proof of that.
